Amador Transit Clerk Now At Sutter Hill Transit Center

Amador Transit has employed Jennifer Cheney to staff the Sutter Hill Transit Center. Jennifer is sharing the office with the Amador Tourism Council. Transit customers will now be able to get change, purchase bus passes and tickets, and complete applications for Dial-a-Ride, Summer Break Youth Passes and enrollment packets for the Amador Rides volunteer transportation program at our transit hub. Jennifer staffs the Transit Center Monday-Friday from 8:30am to 5:00pm.

The Sutter Hill Transit Center is located at 115 Valley View Way, Sutter Creek. There are two electric car charging stations; one in the upper lot and one in the lower lot, as well as picnic tables shaded beneath the oaks. Long-term parking is available in the lower lot for Sacramento commuters and van pool riders, and for individuals taking the bus to connect to the airport or Amtrak.

Amador Transit operates bus service Monday-Friday within Amador County and twice daily to Sacramento. Dial-a-Ride curb-to-curb bus service is offered in the Jackson and Sutter Creek service area for individuals with a disabling condition.

The Dial-a-Ride service area is expanding in July to include areas from Hwy 49 along Ridge Road and Climax Road.
